

Where to Lunch?

I'm busy with sessions and don't have enough time for lunch.

Food stalls will be set up in the Room PA and PB during the lunch time.
Food and drinks are allowed in the session rooms (excluding International Conference Room <3A> and Century Hall <CE>)
Please throw the trash in the trash can.

Food Stalls in PA & PB

I want to try local cuisine for lunch.

Food stalls of Nagoya's local cuisine will be set up in the courtyard (in front of Registration).
There are tables and benches available in the courtyard.

Food Stalls in the Courtyard

I want to take a seminar and have lunch at the same time .

Our exhibitors sponsor luncheon seminars during the lunch time.
Tickets for the luncheon seminars will be distributed at the Registration.

Luncheon Seminars

I have enough time and want to have a relaxed lunch.

Restaurant (with a great view) "Pastel" and Cafeteria "Yuri" are open during the meeting.

Restaurant & Cafeteria

<Open Hours>

- ◆ Restaurant "Pastel" 11 : 00~14 : 00
- ◆ Cafeteria "Yuri" 9 : 00~17 : 00

I have a lot of free time before my next session.

If you have a lot of free time, we recommend you have lunch at one of the eateries inside the central wholesale market within the 10 minutes walk from the congress center.

10 minutes walk to the south is Restaurant "Shirotori Monogatari" where you can enjoy lunch outside at the terrace with a view of green park.

If you have more free time, take a train to the next station. Restaurants offering local specialties are located inside and near one of the biggest shrine in Nagoya, Atsuta Shrine.

Eateries in the Nearby Market

Eateries are located at the back of the market.
Some eateries are closed on the holidays of the market.

Kishimen (flat noodle)
"Miyakishimen"
(inside Atsuta Shrine)

Slow Food Restaurant
"Shirotori Monogatari"
(inside Shirotori Park)

Hitsumabushi
(grilled eel on rice)
"Atsuta Horaiken"
*Note the waiting hour is sometimes 1-2 hours.
